LOK SABHA

The following Bill was introduced in Lok Sabha on 20th December, 1989:—

BILL No. 71 OF 1989

A Bill further to amend the Representation of the People Act, 1951.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Fortieth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Representation of the People (Amendment) Act, 1989.

Short title and commencement.

(2) It shall be deemed to have come into force on the 21st day of October, 1989.

43 of 1951.

2. In the Representation of the People Act, 1951 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), after section 73A, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

Insertion of new section 73AA.

“73AA. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 73 or in any other provision of this Act, with respect to the general election for the purpose of constituting a new House of the People upon the expiry of the term of the House of the People in existence on the commencement of the Representation of the People (Amendment) Act, 1989,—

Special provision as to certain elections.

(a) the notification under section 73 may be issued without taking into account the Parliamentary constituencies in the State of Assam; and

(b) the Election Commission may take the steps in relation to elections from the Parliamentary Constituencies in the State of Assam separately and in such manner and on such date or dates as it may deem appropriate."

Repeal and saving.

3. (1) The Representation of the People (Amendment) Ordinance, 1989, is hereby repealed.

Ord. 2
of 1989.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal, anything done or any action taken under the principal Act, as amended by the said Ordinance, shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the principal Act, as amended by this Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

In respect of general election for constituting the Ninth Lok Sabha, the Election Commission had recommended that the Presidential notification under section 14(2) of the Representation of the People Act, 1951 might be issued on the 23rd October, 1989 calling upon all Parliamentary constituencies other than those within the State of Assam to elect members in accordance with the provisions of that Act and of the rules and orders made thereunder. In the case of Assam, as the revised electoral rolls had not been published in the final form, the question of holding elections from the Parliamentary constituencies in Assam could be taken up only after such final publication of the revised electoral rolls. The Commission accordingly decided to fix a separate programme in due course with respect to the elections from the Parliamentary constituencies in Assam and recommended that suitable provisions might be made in the Representation of the People Act, 1951 to provide legal cover with regard to the postponing of the elections from the Parliamentary constituencies in Assam. The Representation of the People (Amendment) Ordinance, 1989, was accordingly promulgated by the President on the 21st October, 1989.

2. The Bill seeks to replace the aforesaid Ordinance.
